Every Christmas, Little Sister and
I write our letters to Santa.

Then we mail them all the way to the North Pole.

We go sledding at Grandma and Grandpa's farm. I pull the sled up, up, up . . .

. . . then we go down faster and faster and faster!

We all decorate the house for Christmas. Mom and Little Sister hang the wreath.

I help Dad string the lights around and around the Christmas tree.

Dad and I go Christmas shopping.

I find the perfect gift for Mom.

Yum! Yum! "Thanks for the eggnog!"

On Christmas eve, I go to bed, but I can't sleep. Suddenly, I hear a sound on the roof.

I run to the window.

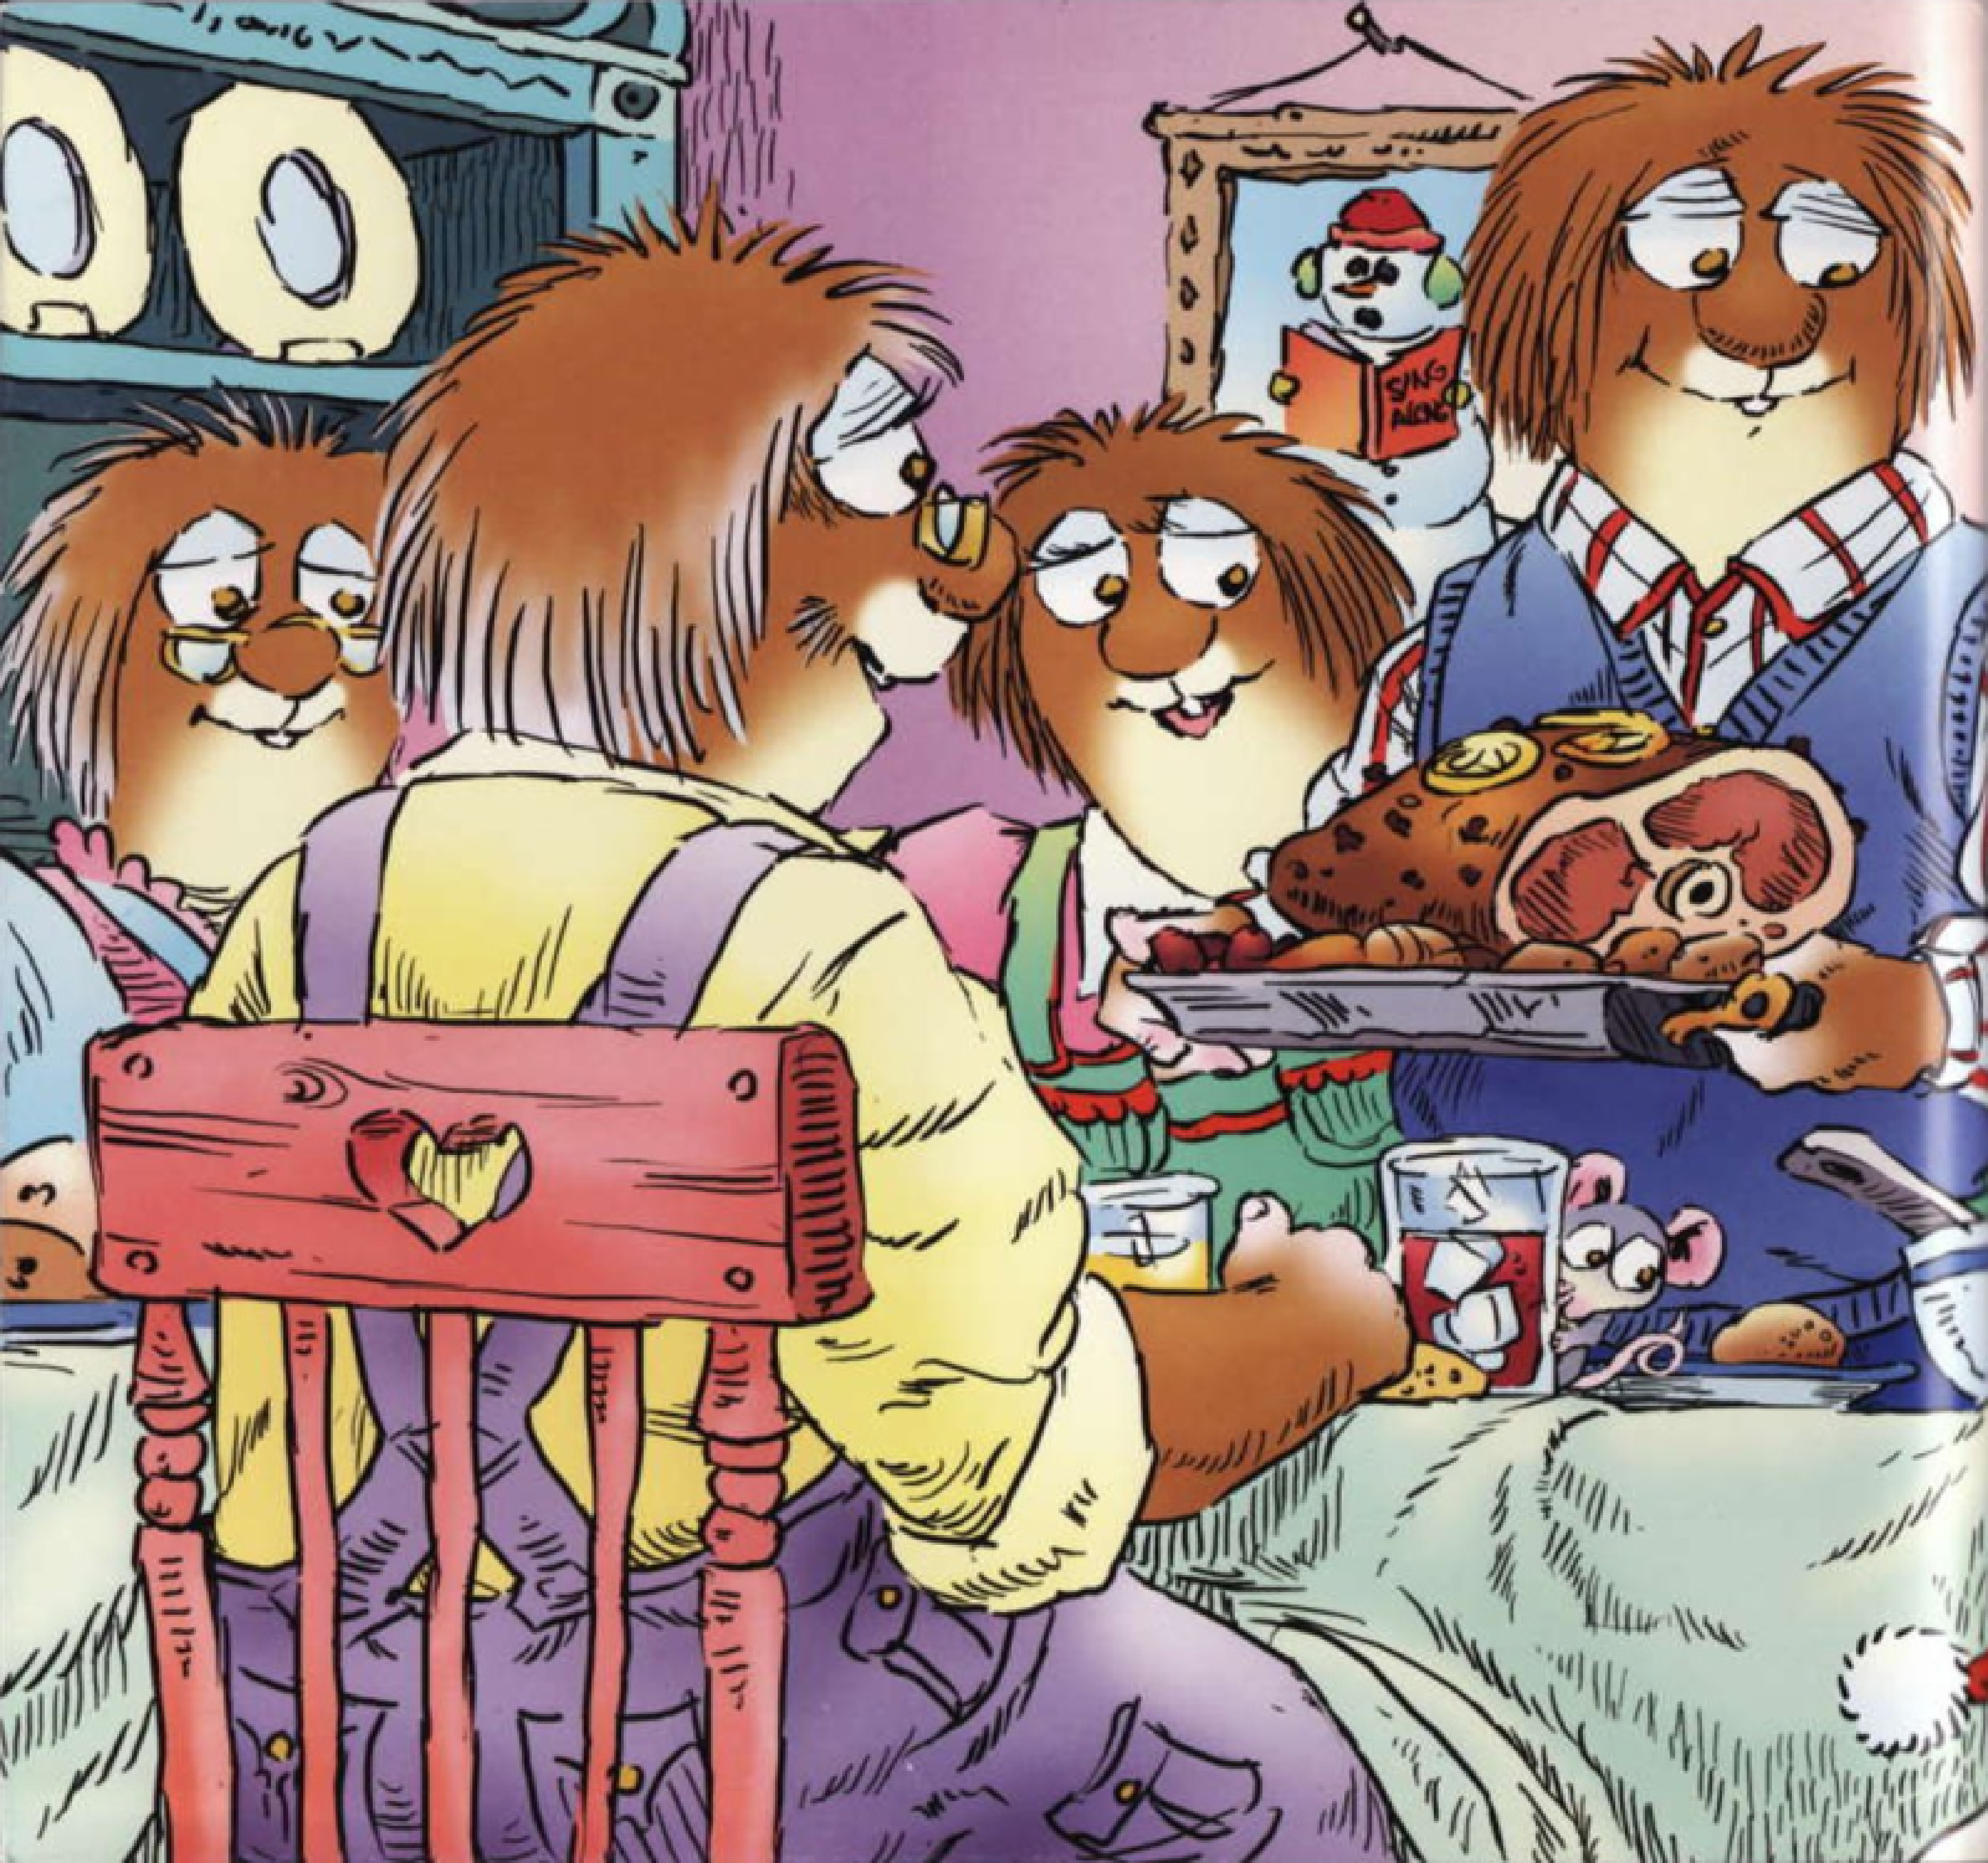
On Christmas
morning, we open
all of our gifts.

Finally, there is just one gift left under the tree. It is the biggest gift of all.

It says, MERRY CHRISTMAS, LITTLE CRITTER! LOVE, SANTA

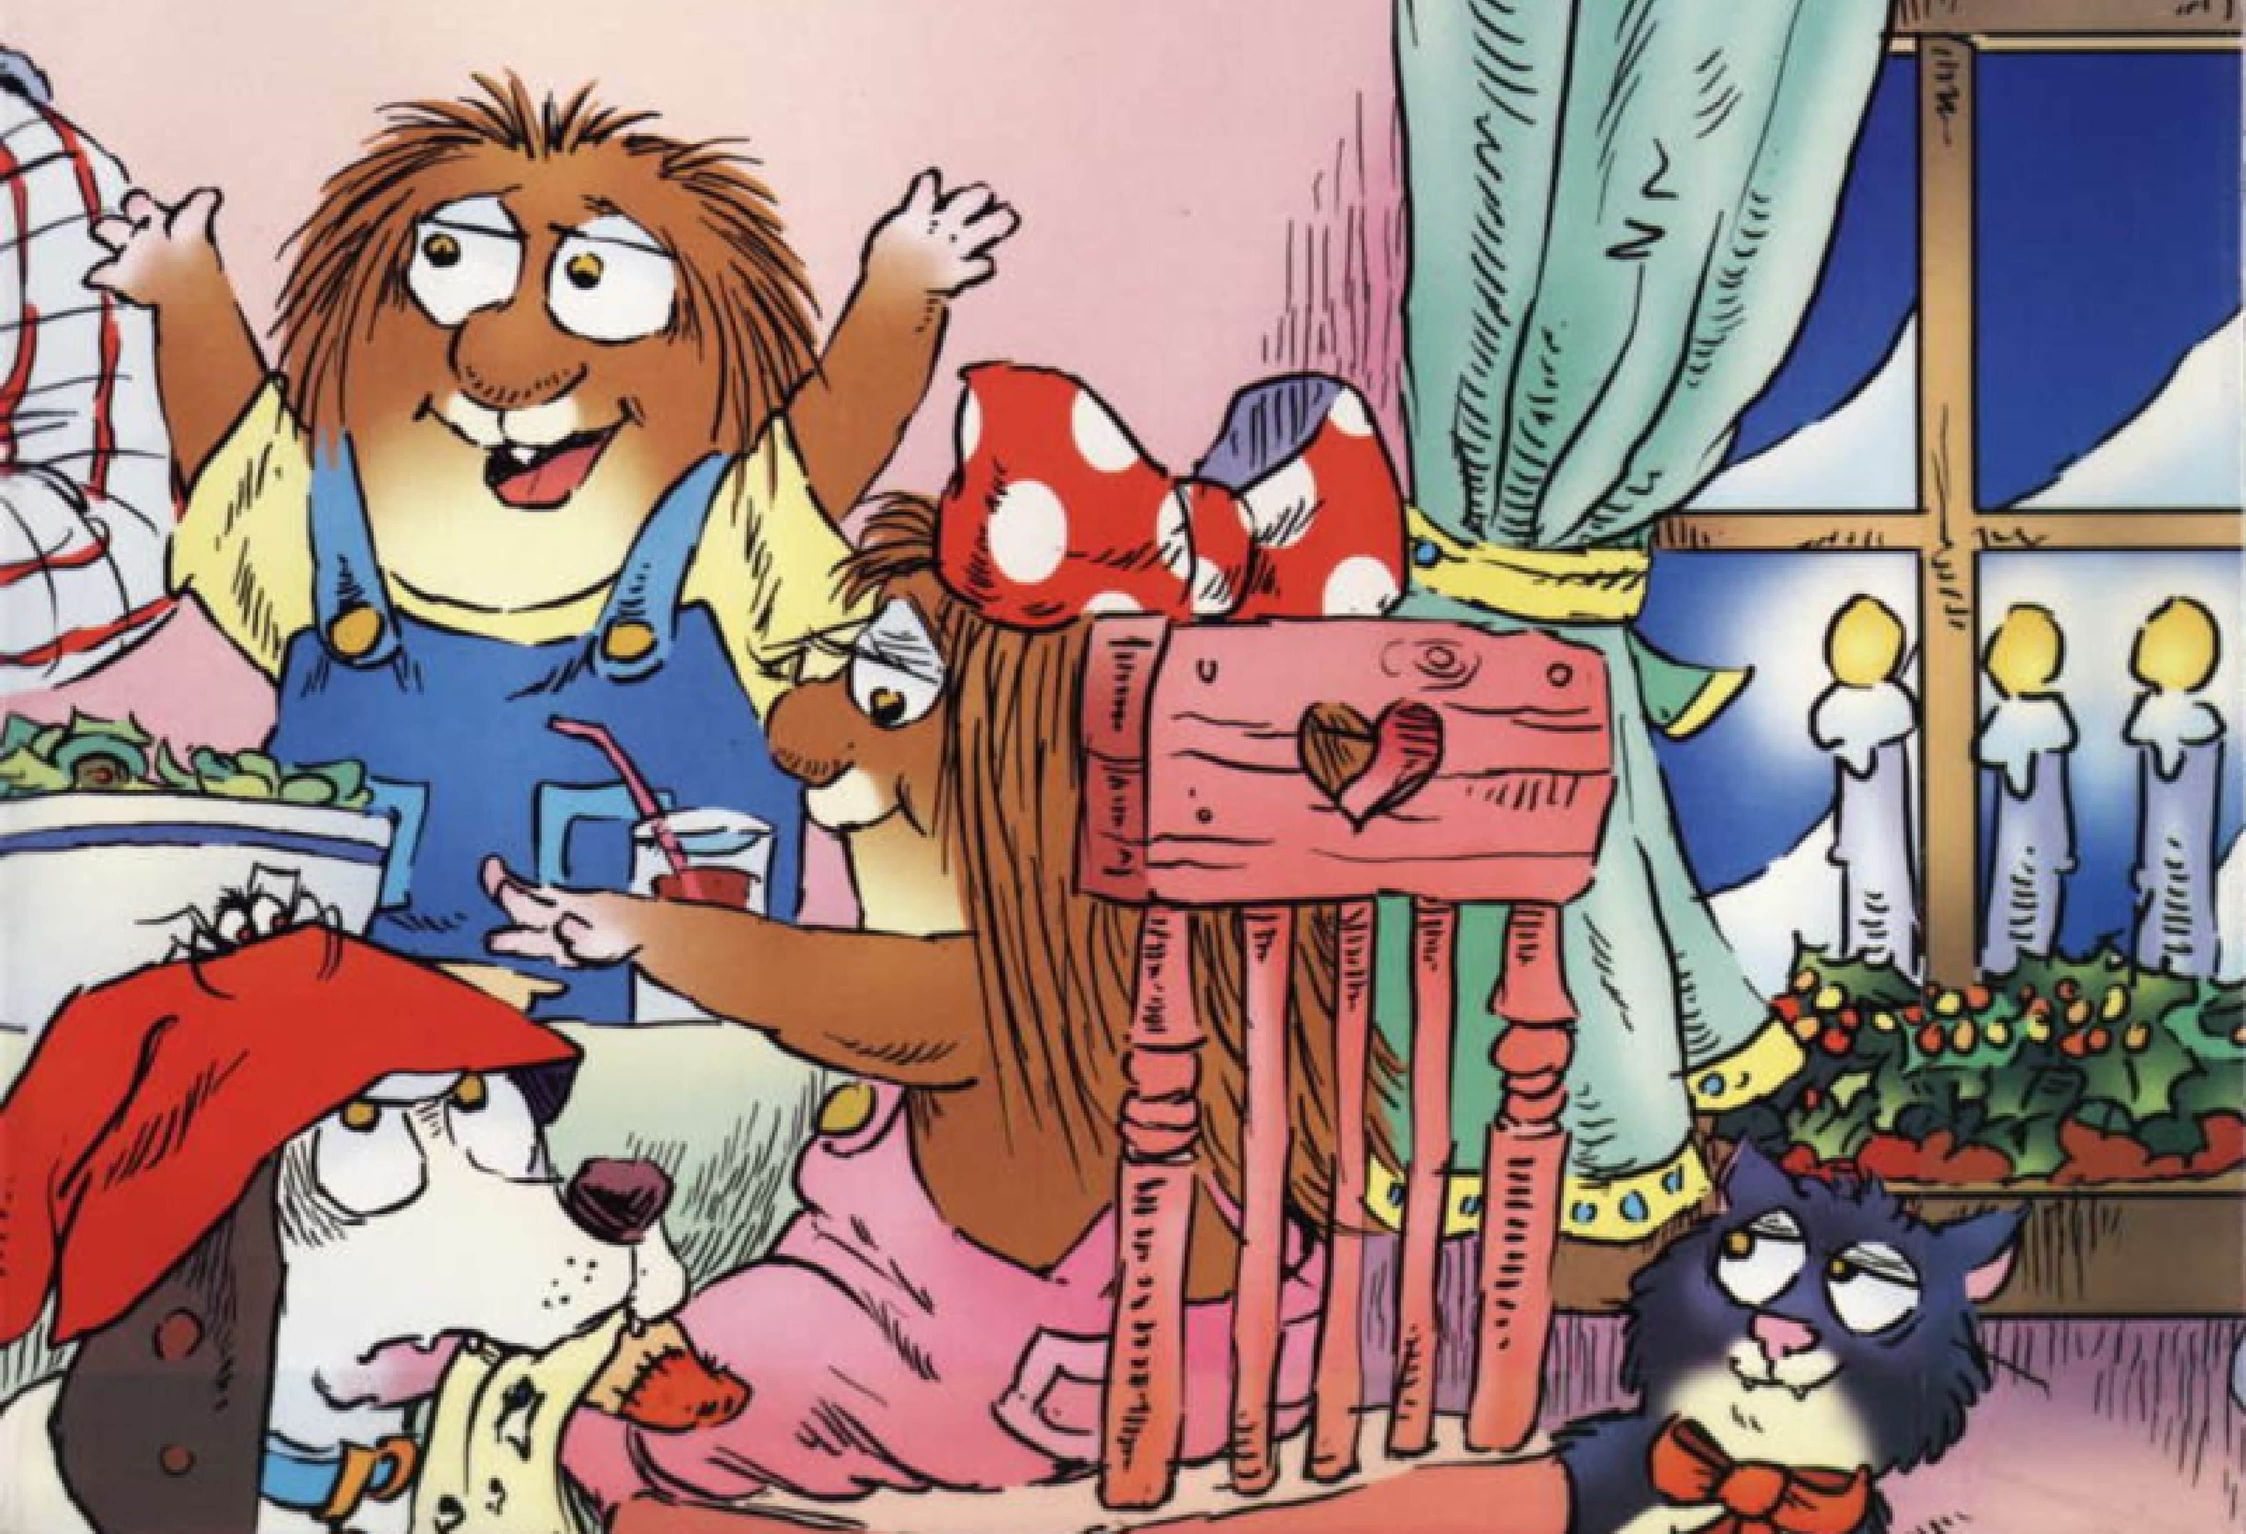
"Wow! Thank you, Santa!"



Grandma and Grandpa come over for Christmas dinner.

"Merry Christmas, everyone!" I say.

"Merry Christmas, Little Critter!"



It's Christmastime, and Little Critter has written his letter to Santa, helped his mom bake cookies, decorated the tree, and done some last-minute shopping. He can't wait for Santa to get here. Lift the big flaps to share in the Christmas fun with Little Critter and his family!
